

Junior Two-Year-Old Champion At Shippensburg

FFA champions of the Shippensburg Holstein Show. From left, Jessica Royer, Franklin Co. dairy princess; Christopher Reichard with the grand champion; Megan Souder, reserve grand champion and Diane Myers, Cumberland Co. dairy princess.

BETH MILLER
Cumberland Co. Correspondent
SHIPPENSBURG (Cumberland Co.) — Justa-Beauty Farm of Boiling Spring and Fountain Farm of Carlisle came away with some major awards during the Shippensburg Fair Holstein Show.

Justa-Beauty captured the premier breeders award and Fountain won the premier exhibition award during the show, which was judged by Ben Dum of Perry County and attracted approximately 150 entries.

The grand champion and senior champion honors in the open event at the show were won by Betsy Walton of Carlisle with her junior 2-year-old Fountain Farm Lead Emblem. Walton and her animal also won the grand champion and senior champion awards in the 4-H section of the contest.

To top things off, Walton and her cow then captured the best animal bred and owned by an exhibitor award.

In the FFA event, the grand champion and senior champion awards were captured by Christopher A. Reichard of Chambersburg and his senior 3-year-old C. Keyeseel Mattador Denise.

The FFA reserve grand champion and reserve senior champion awards went to Megan Souder of Mechanicsburg and her senior 2-year-old MS Wil Joyful Counselor S.

The reserve grand champion and reserve senior champion honors for the open event went to David Day of Shippensburg and his dry cow Bendy-Brook Odyssey. Day and that same animal also won the reserve grand champion and reserve senior champion titles in the 4-H contest.

In the junior competition, the champion titles in the open and the 4-H contests went to David Day for his winter yearling Tri-Day Starbuck Roxie.

The FFA junior champion award was won by Steve Sites of Newbury for his summer yearling Jay-Vir Abner Ever-Red.

David Day then captured even more honors by winning the reserve junior champion titles in the open and 4-H contests with his summer yearling Tri-Day Counselor Bobbi Jo.

The winner of the FFA reserve junior champion honor was Jack W. Rotz of Waynesboro with his summer yearling Butter-Lane Michelle.

Christopher Reichard displayed his talent in the show ring to take top honors during the Holstein showing and fitting contest at the Shippensburg Fair.

Reichard's ability earned him the first place award in the senior division of the contest, which was open to participants 16 to 21 years old. There were 11 competitors in the senior division event.

The entire show was judged by Chris Wood of Penn Gate Farms.

The second place award in the senior division was captured by Craig Walton. Third place in that division went to Mandy Naugle.

In the competition for the intermediate division for participants 13 to 15 years old, the first place winner was Matthew Day. Day
(Turn to Page A34)

You're Invited

The farming public and those associated with agriculture are cordially invited to attend the

Grand Opening New Asgrow Research & Product Development Station

Field Day & Open House

Tuesday August 31, 1993

10:00 am - 2:00 pm

Lunch Served

Directions: Galena, MD

Coming from the north or south take route 301 to the intersection of 301 & highway 290 at the Sassafrass exit. Go toward Galena, (west), approximately 1.5 miles - the new Research farm will be on the left. Signs will be posted at 301 & farm entrance.

Tours:

Corn & Soybean Variety Plots
Sulfonylurea Herbicide Tolerant Soybeans
Pursuit Herbicide Tolerant Corn
Roundup Resistant Soybeans
Crop Fertility

New Research Facilities:

Research Laboratory
Greenhouse
Growth Chambers

Representatives To Answer Questions:

Asgrow Dupont Monsanto
Milford Fertilizer Seedway

For more information contact Seedway Inc. at 1-800-836-3720

Dehl Outside
Wood Furnaces
Woodchuck Sales and Service
717/532-5820

FOR SALE

25x48
Greenhouse
Best Offer
over $500.00

Menno S. Beller
718 Vintage Rd.
Christiana, Pa 17509