and national meats judging contest. He received his Chapter and Star Greenhand degrees and a livestock proficiency award.

Angela Hollinger

To someday become an accountant, and maybe own her own business, are indicated as the plans for four-year Dover FFA member Angela Hollinger. Angela, 18, daughter of Ernest and Diane Hollinger, Dover, York County, has served as chapter treasurer and as chair of several chapter committees. She has participated in Penn State Activities Week and various leadership conferences. Angela has also received recognition, including apple, livestock, and land judging awards, and received her Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and White Rose degrees.

Christina Hoopes

"I plan to study agronomy at Delaware Valley College and become an ag consultant," Christina Hoopes told Lancaster Farming. Christina, 17, daughter of James and Sandra Hoopes, Ulysses, Potter County, is a four-year member of Headwaters FFA. She has served as chapter reporter, treasurer, secretary, and is president. She worked on a variety of ag-related projects in FFA, including cucumbers, market steer, and sweet corn. Her cucumber project book went to state competition, where she received a silver award. She is also a member of the parliamentary procedure team and dairy judging team. For the past two years, Christina has competed in extemporaneous public speaking. She is chairwoman of the BOAC, citrus, cider, and FFA Week Activities committees. The Headwaters FFA member received a Star Greenhand and was a delegate to the national convention.

Brian Gregory Hornberger

A job in mechanics or agriculture forms the plans for Brian Gregory Hornberger, 18, son of Jeff and Colleen Hornberger, Manheim, Lancaster County. Brian, four-year Manheim FFA member, has served as chapter vice president and county reporter. His SAE has been in fur trapping, and he has participated in various activities and projects, including Made For Excellence, Farm Show committee, and Penn State Activities Week. He was a bronze medalist winner in the national sales contest. Brian has obtained the Greenhand, Chapter, and Red Rose degrees.

Andy Horning

Four-year Grassland FFA member Andy Horning has served as chapter treasurer and chaplain. Andy, 18, son of Dave and Janice Horning, Mohnton, Berks County, has also served on various committees, including earnings, savings, and investments. He indicated he would like to start his own business as an electrician, having compiled experience in electrical work for four years.

Rodney Hoyman

Three-year Somerset County AVTS member Rodney Hoyman has served on various committees in FFA, including public speaking, sports, banquet, Farm Show, National FFA Week, forestry field meet, and others. Rodney, 18, son of Patricia and Ronald Hoyman, Garrett, Somerset County, has also earned various awards, including second in his county demonstration team, fifth in public speaking, and first for the state demonstration team. Recently, he has placed fifth in the county forestry contest, fifth in the wildlife contest, third in public speaking, fourth in Envirothon, and fifth in the state forestry contest.

John Huber

To either continue in farming or agriculture-related work or drive tractor-trailer forms the plans for four-year Manheim FFA member John Huber. Son of J. Larry and Carol Huber, John, 17, who lives in Manheim, Lancaster County, has served on various chapter committees, including Manheim Farm Show, citrus sale, fund raising, and savings and investments. He has participated in various contests, including county ag mechanics, county small gas engines, county tractor driving, regional agronomy, state poultry, state small gas engines, and state tractor driving. John raised tobacco for his SAE project. He has earned his Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, Star Chapter Agribusiness, and Red Rose degrees.

Gisela Imgrund

Gisela Imgrund, 17, daughter of Karl and Katherine Imgrund, Lewisburg, Union County, said she plans to attend college and study veterinarian medicine. Gisela is a four-year member of Mifflinburg FFA, and has served as chapter vice president and assistant president. She has also served on various committees, including executive committee, gifts and flowers, and BOAC committee. She has won various awards, including weight classes in the Union County West End Fair and a SUN Area SAE record book gold medal. She has participated in other contests, including chapter land judging, public speaking, forestry contest, and others.

Karena Kaiser

Keystone Farmer Degree recipient Karena Kaiser, 18, daughter of Joe and Suzanne Kaiser, Abbottstown, is president of the Conewago New Oxford FFA and said she plans to pursue a 4-year college degree in agriculture.
