

FFA To Present Keystone Degrees To 204

(Continued from Page F12)

Leadership Conference in 1991.

A member of his church youth group, he said he intends to attend Devry Institute and major in electronics engineering.

Shawn Kensinger

Shawn Kensinger, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Kensinger, Williamsburg, is a four-year member of Central Cove FFA Chapter and serves as its chaplain.

Shawn has been involved in on-farm work experience since 1991, was a member of the land judging team at the states, served on his chapter's refreshment and program committees, and participated in the Adopt-a-Highway and community fair projects.

In 1991, he also participated in the Food for American program and the Fall Leadership Conference.

He has won various awards at the county and area levels for project books. A member of his church youth group, he said he intends to attend an auto and diesel mechanic technical school.

Chris Kepley

Chris Kepley, 18, whose parents are Don and Marge Gross, Lebanon, is a three-year FFA member at Cedar Crest FFA chapter, at Cedar Crest High School, and has served as its chaplain and parliamentarian.

Kepley's projects include work experience and dairy herd work. Chris has served as chairman of the chapter's recreation committee, and worked on its Adopt-A-Highway program and helped with the chapter window exhibit.

Chris said achievements include earning the Greenhand and Chapter Farmer degrees, and awards in scrapbook keeping, horse proficiency, and horse, livestock and dairy judging contests. Also won were silver medals in the county and state record book contests.

Plans for the future are to get a job in an agriculturally related field.

Richard W. Kerper Jr.

Richard W. Kerper Jr., 18, son of Richard and Kay Kerper, Fleetwood, is chapter president of the Oley Valley FFA Chapter at Oley Valley High School.

The four-year member has also served as the chapter's vice president and treasurer, and president and vice president of the county organization.

A star Chapter Farmer, and the recipient of a state silver medalist in land judging, Kerper has been involved in showing steers and heifers, finishing and breeding swine and market lambs, and in producing vegetable crops.

He said he plans to farm for a career.

Arthur S. Knisely

Arthur S. Knisely, 17, son of Arthur R. and Esther A. Knisely, of Millerstown, is a four-year member of Greenwood FFA Chapter at Greenwood High School.

The recipient of the Greenhand, Chapter, and Area FFA degrees, he has also served as his chapter's junior advisor. He has been involved with the chapter's BOAC and citrus committees and with on-farm and off-farm work experience.

In addition, he was won awards for small gas engine knowledge, taking third in the county.

Knisely said his plans are to pursue a career in banking or farming.

Jeremiah D. Kosa

Jeremiah D. Kosa, 17, son of Kurt and Laurel Kosa, Ulysses, has been a member of the Headwaters FFA Chapter for the past four years and has been involved on its cattle judging, citrus, apple cider, and FFA Safety Week committees.

He earned his Star Greenhand Degree, and numerous awards for showing and fitting cattle at county, district and state levels. Kosa has been involved with a dairy project and a home improvement project as well.

He said he intends to pursue at least a four-year college degree.

Todd Kramer

Todd A. Kramer, 18, son of Robert and Karen Kramer, Bellefonte, has been vice president of the Bellefonte FFA Chapter for three years and secretary for one year.

Chairman of the chapter's public service committee and serving on its FFA Week Committee, Kramer has been participating in on-farm and off-farm work experience projects — dairy farming and working for Claster Building Materials Co. in State College.

Kramer said his plan is to eventually run and own a construction business.

Randy Kreider

Randy Kreider, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kreider, Lancaster, has served as his chapter's treasurer in 1991 and has earned his Greenhand, Chapter, and Red Rose degrees.

He has been involved in his chapter's FFA banquet, poster, and taffy pull committees and helped with the Petting Zoo at Lampeter Fair, the chapter fruit sales, pie sales, poultry judging, meat judging, showing hogs and has attended the national FFA convention.

He said he plans to continue working at his father's farm.

Pattie Krietzer

Patti Krietzer, 16, daughter of Richard and Patricia Krietzer, Lebanon, is a four-year member of Northern Lebanon FFA, at Northern Lebanon High School, where she served as sentinel last year and is its secretary.

(Turn to Page F14)

EMU

AMERICA'S FASTEST GROWING
AGRI BUSINESS

Presented by:

On-Stage
Presentation
MON 6 PM
Family Living
Center

Cooking
Demo
See
Farm Show
Schedule

LEARN ABOUT EMU

at the

PA FARM SHOW

BOOTH 10-11

2ND FLOOR NORTHEAST BUILDING

FAMILY LIVING CENTER