

FFA To Present Keystone Degrees To 204

(Continued from Page F15)

Dave Miller

Dave Miller, 18, son of Samuel and Lee Ann Miller, Tipton, Blair County, is a four-year member and current vice president of Bellwood-Antis FFA Chapter, at Bellwood-Antis High School.

Dave has also been the chapter's chaplain, parliamentarian and historian and earned his Greenhand and Chapter degrees. For four years, he has been involved in two work experience projects, one on-farm, the other off-farm, and has been involved in an emergency service project for a year.

He also received the BBF Area Star Ag Sales, Mechanics and Service awards. He said he plans to attend a trade school after completing high school.

Tony Miller

Tony Miller, 17, son of Wilmer and Lois Miller, Narvon, is president of the Pequea Valley FFA Chapter at Pequea Valley High School and has also served as its vice president, chaplin and chairman of its leadership, membership development, and banquet committees.

Tony has earned his Red Rose (county) Degree and is also serving as the county secretary.

His projects include beef production and work experience in horseshoeing and horse training. He placed ninth in horse judging at the Eastern States competition.

Tony said he would eventually like to be a horse trainer.

John Mingle

John Mingle, 18, son of Joyce Mingle, Mt. Pleasant Mills, is president of the Middleburg FFA Chapter, has also served as its vice president and assistant vice president, and as the Snyder County vice president.

The four-year member of FFA has been a member of the 1993 third place parliamentary procedure team, and participated in the state extemporaneous public speaking contest, was first in the SUN area land judging contest, and blue ribbon winner in area dairy judging competition.

He was involved in rabbit, swine and beef production, a dairy herd project, and on-farm work experience.

He has also earned a SUN area Star Farmer degree.

Jason Morgan

Jason Morgan, 17, son of Junior and Elaine Morgan, of Gratz, Dauphin County, has served as sentinel and historian of the Upper Dauphin Area FFA Chapter.

A four-year member, he has earned his Greenhand, CDP and area degrees, been involved in a work experience project, and participated in the chapter's annual citrus sale.

He said he intends to seek a career in carpentry.

Ron Most

Ron Most, 17, son of Roger and Ruth Most, Berlin, for two years served as chaplain of the Somerset County AVTS FFA Chapter.

He has been involved with the chapter's banquet, BOAC, education activities, forestry field meet, demonstration, sports, dues, and county contest committees. He also participated in such contests as the state forestry contest, taking fourth; the national forestry contest, taking a personal bronze and a silver team medal; Envirothons; and other county contests and project book contests.

According to Ron, "I want to go onto school to be a lumber grader."

Travis Mowry

Travis Mowry, 17, Osterburg, in Bedford County, has been student advisor for the Chestnut Ridge FFA Chapter and has earned his Greenhand and Chapter Farmer degrees and also earned the highest grade point average, as a junior.

His FFA activities also include serving on the chapter's apple butter boil, scrapbook, and citrus sales committees.

After finishing high school, he said he intends to pursue a college degree in landscaping architecture.

Jeremy Moyer

Jeremy Moyer, 17, son of Gregory and Aletha Moyer, Middleburg, is president of the Selinsgrove FFA, and is the SUN Area reporter.

Moyer, who has also served as chapter reporter for two years, has earned his Greenhand, Chapter, and SUN Area degrees and was presented with the 1992 Star Chapter Agribusiness Award.

His committee work includes serving on the banquet, cider, dairy herd, membership, summer trip/national convention, exhibit, and program committees. His projects include work with a dairy herd, field corn, and soybeans.

Jeremy said he intends to eventually form a partnership and farm with his father.

Scott W. Moyer

Scott Westley Moyer, 17, son of George and Sharon Moyer, Selinsgrove, has served as chapter sentinel, secretary and SUN area secretary during his four years as a member of FFA in the Selinsgrove Chapter.

(Turn to Page F26)

Hershey Foods

the name you know,
the quality you trust.

HERSHEY'S

Reese's

Peter Paul

Cadbury's

W.S.

L LUCEN'S

SKINNER

Light 'n' Fluffy

AMERICAN BEAUTY

ROMZONI

P&R

San Giorgio

Delmonico

Above trademarks are registered trademarks of Hershey Foods Corporation