

DPI Fund Drive Under Way

GEORGETOWN, Del. — The 1994 Fund Drive for Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc. (DPI) is under way and hundreds of volunteers are working to reach the $480,000 goal.

At the recent Fund Drive Kick-off Dinner in Seaford, Del., DPI

First Vice President and Fund Drive Chairman Douglas K. Marvil announced that cash and pledges received to date totaled $278,913, about 58 percent of the goal.

With 11 weeks remaining until the end of the campaign, Marvil challenged the nearly 150 solicitors to work diligently to meet the goal.

The men and women serving as fund drive volunteers represent all segments of the poultry industry. They will be contacting past DPI investors and seeking new members.

DPI membership includes poultry growers, businesses on Delmarva which recognize the importance of the local poultry industry to their operations and to the economy of the entire peninsula, allied industry suppliers of products and services, poultry company employees, and the eight local poultry companies.

The featured speaker at the kickoff dinner was L. Peter Patrick, president of Peter Patrick Associates, a training, sales, and market consulting business. Mixing humor with an inspirational message, Patrick stressed the importance of teamwork in an association such as DPI. He emphasized that the $480,000 could be met only when the fund drive volunteers were willing to work together for the good of others.
