

Pennfield To Donate Chicken For Make-A-Wish Fund Raiser

LANCASTER (Lancaster Co.) — The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Lancaster County will hold its fifth annual Mother's Day Convoy and Chicken Barbecue on Sunday, May 8, at Burle Industries, 1000 New Holland Avenue, Lancaster. The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Lancaster County is a non-profit charity whose mission is to grant one wish to each qualified child with a life threatening illness, and include the family in the wish. The wish granting is funded by fund raising events and private contributions.

The day's activities will start at 8:30 a.m. with the auction sponsored by the Winross Collectors Club of Mount Joy. Among sale items will be a large selection of Winross and Ertl trucks, prints, rugs, games, afghans, pillows, dolls, and gift certificates for various local establishments. The craft show, with more than 35 vendors will begin at 10 a.m. in the parking lot.

The chicken barbecue will feature a Pennfield chicken quarter and dinner. Pennfield is once again donating 2,500 chicken quarters for the barbecue. The $3 dinner will be available starting at 10:30 a.m. Takeouts will be available. Tickets are available in advance, by calling the Make-A-Wish office at (717) 392-3840. Advance ticket buyers are eligible for a drawing for a 1994 Make-A-Wish Toy Winross truck.

The premier event of the day, the convoy to Ephrata and back, will start at 1 p.m. Wish Children and their siblings will be riding along with the trucks. As space warrants, children from the community will also have the opportunity to ride in the trucks. More than 250 trucks and fire trucks are expected to join in the 30-mile ride. The convoy will go to Brownstown, north on Rt. 272, to Rt. 322, east through Ephrata, then to Rt. 222 south, returning to the Burle lot.

You Ask ? ? ? ? ? You Answer

In response to readers' questions, this column is for readers who have questions but don't know who to ask for the answers. In the past many readers sent non-cooking requests to Cook's Question Corner, a column located in B 8.

"You Ask — You Answer" is for non-cooking questions. The concept is the same: When a reader sends in a question, it will be printed in the paper. Readers who know the answer are asked to respond by mailing the answer, which will then be printed as soon as possible in the paper.

Questions and answers for this column should be addressed to You Ask — You Answer, Lou Ann Good, P.O. Box 609, Ephrata, PA 17522.

QUESTION — A. Nolt of New Holland would like to know the complete poem that was recited in the 1920s when her father-in-law went to school. The poem contains these lines: The carpenter's house is falling down. The preacher's kids are the worse in town....

QUESTION — Marie Lorah, Box 299 R.D.3, Tamaqua, PA 18252, is looking for water glasses with pictures of owls on them.

QUESTION — Romaine B. Ansell, Summerdale, would like to know who manufactured the Webalco electric skillet.

QUESTION — Robin O'Brien, Reading, would like to know some economical cleaning solutions to be used on everything from cleaning wooden floors to fiberglass tubs.

ANSWER — Nancy Kring, Johnstown, wanted to know where you can purchase books and cassettes on the Pennsylvania Dutch language. Also, where can Pa. Dutch signs, cookbooks, and other memorabilia be purchased? Thanks to Gladys Martin, Ephrata, who says that she can purchase a Pa. German dictionary at Provident Book Store, Lancaster Shopping Center, 1625 Lititz Pike, Lancaster, PA 17601-05 or write to the author Professor C. Richard Beam, 406 Spring Drive, Millersville, PA 17551.

Gladys, herself, has written a book of poems in Pennsylvania German with the English translation included. It is a hard cover book that she will mail for $8.75 plus $1.50 for postage. To order, send $10.25 and your name and complete address to Gladys S. Martin, 767 Glenwood Dr. Ephrata, PA 17522-9360.
