

Wonderview Farms is a 300 Cow Dairy overlooking Seneca Lake in Schuyler County, New York. The farm is operated as a partnership between brothers Mike and Doug Learn along with brother-in-law Alan Peckham. Their father Wendell is in the process of slowly retiring from the operation. Wonderview Farms started buying Purina Chows in April 1991. The ration consists of corn silage. Haylage and Purina Dairy Chows. Until May of 1993 they fed Purina Test Cow to the high and medium groups and Purina Milk Chow to the low group. Since then they have fed Purina Test Cow and Purina Ultimate EXT 24% to the high and medium groups. The low group was fed Purina Test Cow until November 1993 when Purina HI-E B 35% UIP was used in conjunction with high-moisture shelled corn. The high group is balanced for 80 pounds of milk. The medium group for 70 pounds. And the low group for 60 pounds.

Mike and Wendall have expressed satisfaction with the service provided by HECK-R-BOARD and their Purina Dairy Specialist Dave Learn. Dave works closely with Mike and Alan to meet the needs of Wonderview Farms as they grow into the Dairy Business of the 90's.

Purina Mills and HECK-R-BOARD wish to thank the people at Wonderview Farms for sharing their records and wish them success.
