

Farm Women 14

Our January meeting was cancelled on account of the snow. For our February meeting we had lunch at Bloomfield Square and then went to Erma Brubaker's at Landis Homes for our business meeting. No March meeting because of more snow.

We were entertained on April 13th at the Lutheran Church in Maytown by Society No. 8. They served us delicious hot meat casseroles, salads, and desserts brought in by their members — a real feast. The program listed as Musical Entertainment was presented by David and Sylvia Kuch. Old time songs, piano solo, and solos by David and Sylvia made a delightful program, and we thoroughly enjoyed the day.

The Spring Rally was held on May 11th at the York Fairgrounds. Ten ladies from our society attended helping Pennsylvania celebrate 80 years of Farm Women. In the forenoon we were entertained by Robert and Verna Kissinger, a comedy team. After a good lunch we sang old familiar songs. Our speaker, Joyce Bupp, told about Farm Women now and then. She took us back to the days when some of us used feed bags for pillowcases, sheets, aprons, blouses, and dresses. We also heard about canning meats, vegetables, and fruits in the blue, green jars. It was a really enjoyable day.

Our regular May meeting was held at the home of Helen Herr on the 26th. Hostesses were Mary Louise Landis, Elma Barge, Esther Landis, and Helen Breneman. After delicious cake, smackers, mints, and tea or coffee, our program was given by Mary Ellen Dula. She told about her life as a missionary nurse in Africa. Her talk was very interesting as most of knew her or her family.

On June 14-16, our group took a three-day bus tour to Boston, Massachusetts. The tour was well planned by Janet Leaman, one of our group. On Monday we visited Faneuil Hall, Quincy Market, and went to the top of the John Hancock Building to view Boston. We visited Parke Street Church and Filene's Bargain Basement. We had a cruise on Boston Harbor and toured Old Ironsides. With a guide on our bus, we toured the city and saw a film in the IMAX theater. We also saw the Mayflower II, Plymouth Rock, and toured Ocean Spray Cranberry World and saw the cranberry bogs. It was a great three-day sightseeing and educational tour.
