JEFFERSON

JAMES AND PAM BERRY

James and Pam Berry and their two sons Jamie, 8, and Phillip, 6, moved from Lebanon County to Jefferson County in February of this year. After renting a dairy farm for 11 years, they always wanted a place of their own and they wanted it to be attractive. That's why they applied for the Dairy of Distinction award and are pleased they received it. The farm, located south of Brookville, consists of about 200 acres. They have 64 Holsteins and have just started on DHIA test. The boys like to help look forward to when they get older so they can do more around the farm.
