in obedience, showmanship and grooming, and the handlers did an excellent job in showing these animals.

As featured in a recent story in Lancaster Farming, a seeing eye puppy 4-H club, named "Future Loving Eyes," has been formed in Juniata County. Some of those beautiful dogs from puppies through a year old or more and their host families were present to be seen and to answer questions. More puppies are coming into the Juniata Club regularly.

To refresh the memories of readers who may have belonged to 4-H clubs many years ago, we list here the pledge which has been repeated down through generations of 4-H members and which still has real meaning in today's busy world: "I pledge my head for clearer thinking; my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service; my health for better living - for my club, my community, my country, my world." Note that the last phrase, "my world," was added since the time that it was first learned by 4-H members. The world will be a better place because these youth are dedicating themselves to being industrious workers, learning self-discipline and not being afraid to try new things.

247-pound grand champion 4-H swine exhibited by Gregory Luther Imes and sold for $1,235.
