

More Scenes From Ag Progress Days

Crowds pack the Ag Progress grounds on Tuesday when ideal weather prevailed.

Although Ag Progress Days is held in summer, it's never too warm to discuss the latest in heating technologies.

Like many others, these two visitors to Ag Progress Days are drawn to displays of snow blowers, apparently with memories of the past winter's record snows.

This group of visitors inspects models of garden equipment among the numerous equipment, machinery and educational displays at Ag Progress Days.
