Estate Planning Workshop Set

CREAMERY (Montgomery Co.) — The Penn State and Rutgers Cooperative Extension are sponsoring an estate planning workshop on October 10 from 8.30 a.m. until 4 p.m. to be held at the Holiday Inn at Bethlehem, just off Route 22 and 512.

This workshop has been planned to provide the best available and current information on estate planning. The topics to be included are wills, trusts and estate planning documents; estate tax consideration; estate administration; guardianship; long term care and asset protection; pre-arranged funeral planning; and transfer of family business or farm.

Workshop instructors will include local attorneys Sally Schoffstall of Frank, Frank, Penn and Bergstein of Allentown; Stanley M. Vasiliadis of Bethlehem; and Donald A. Zamborsky of Allentown; and funeral director Joseph Reichel of Reichel Funeral Homes, Inc. of Nazareth and Northampton. Other instructors include: Charlotte Hartmann-Hansen, CLU, ChFC of Bethlehem and Nazareth area; Randy Setzer, Accountant-Farm Credit Financial Service, Fogelsville; and Duane L. Stevenson, Jr., Penn State Cooperative Extension Agent.

Pre-registration for the program is $25 for single and $35 for couple, which includes refreshments, lunch and workshop reference materials. (Registration after October 3 will be $30 for single and $40 for couple.)

Registration brochures and information are available at the Northampton or Lehigh County Extension offices or by calling either office at (610) 746-1970 or (610) 391-9840.

Youth Contests Featured At KILE

HARRISBURG (Dauphin Co.) — The 17th Annual Keystone Stockmen's Contest, a youth activity in the program of the KILE Show, is scheduled for Monday, October 10. The contest is open to all 4-H and FFA members. These members will also compete as individuals.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. and the contest concludes at 4:30 p.m. This allows a group to participate in the contest, view the livestock and horse shows in progress, and return home the same day.

Prizes are awarded for the winners. The high scoring team wins $100 as well as ribbons. The individual high score wins $75, with prizes going to the top 30 participants. All others will receive participation ribbons.

The five highest placing contestants in the overall individual scores are interviewed by a committee of three officials. The interview consists of questions on management, health, showing and current events concerning the livestock industry.

The winner of this award will receive $250 and a permanent trophy.

For more information on the contest, contact Charles Itle, manager of the KILE Show, (717) 624-3258.

Blacksmith's Days At Farm Museum

WESTMINSTER, Md. — On Saturday, October 1, and Sunday, October 2, the Blacksmith Guild of Central Maryland and the Carroll County Farm Museum will present the fifth annual "Blacksmith's Days," rain or shine.

The events for the day will include forging demonstrations from noon to 3 p.m., a hands-on opportunity for the public to forge 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., and an auction or sale of handforged items and blacksmith related materials at the end of each day.

Food will be available both days.

Special demonstrations will be held each morning starting at 9 a.m. featuring the well-known artist-blacksmith Peter Happny of Portsmouth, N.H. Admission to this morning session will be $5 each day. Gates will open at 8:30 a.m. for this morning event only.

General admission to the Farm Museum applies. Adults are $3; 12 to 18, 60 and over, $2; and under 12, free.

The Farm Museum will open for tours from noon to 5 p.m.
