

38th KILE Kicks Off

He has also judged sheep all over the East and consigned animals and supported numerous purebred livestock sales and has been chairman of the Pennsylvania Suffolk Ewe Sale for 31 years.

Also honored by the PLA were two FFA youth who were recognized for their outstanding achievements.

Scott Byers, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Lloyd Byers, of Liverpool, is a member of the Greenwood

High School FFA and has projects including swine, beef, sheep and crop production. He has served as sentinel and parliamentarian of his chapter as well as chairman of his chapter's safety committee. He is also involved in various extracurricular activities and at church.

Also honored, was Jenny Zerby, 18, who is also state FFA president. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Zerby, of Beavertown and has been an FFA member at West Snyder High School since 1990. Her projects also include swine, beef and sheep.

President of the PLA, Tony Dobrosky, also welcomed those attending the opening ceremonies and gave an overview of the supporting activities which help make the KILE possible. He said he urged people to support KILE by supporting such PLA activities such as the annual rib-cook-off, because proceeds raised go to support KILE.

Following the presentations,

Bruce Rappaport gave a slide presentation on the importance of horses to Pennsylvania and to KILE.

The KILE continues each day through Monday evening with thousands of animals and shows and sales daily. There are family oriented activities and children-participation events held also, in addition to strolling entertainment and a trained dog show.
