TIMONIUM, Md. — Nearly $1,000 in cash and prizes were up for grabs in the third annual Maryland Montadale Jackpot held at the Maryland 4-H and FFA Market Lamb Show during Maryland State Fair.

The judge for this year's show was Jeff Neal of Sycamore, Ohio. Neal made several comments about the leanness and heavy muscling of many of the lambs as well as the tremendous parity within the classes.

Topping the lightweight division was a 91-pound lamb exhibited by Kate Brewer of Phoenix, Md. This was her second year showing in the Montadale Jackpot. Last year she had the reserve champion lamb.

In the middleweight division, a 103-pound lamb exhibited by Chris Gazunis gathered the top spot. This year marked Chris's first trip to state fair.

First place in the heavyweight division went to John Norris of Woodbine, Md. This was also the second year he has participated in this show.

It was the middle weight lamb exhibited by Chris Gazunis of Montgomery County, Md. that walked away with grand championship honors as well as the $250 jackpot. Reserve grand champion and $150 went to the top placing heavyweight lamb shown by John Norris of Carroll County, Md. The champion lamb also proved to be one of the top-selling lambs in state 4-H & FFA livestock sale, bringing $3.00/pound. Both champions were also awarded trophy blankets and directors chairs.

Once again the Maryland Montadale Association sponsored this youth jackpot show.
