

Berks Society 4

Members of Berks County Society of Farm Women Group 4 participated in a video, "The Great American Health Test," when they met in the home of Mary Fizz.

New officers elected are president, Virginia Taylor; vice president, Barbara Shaner; treasurer, Georgeanna Fullerton, and secretary, Ferne Kulp.

The next meeting on December 6 will be a Christmas party and gift exchange in the Hereford home of Virginia Taylor.

Berks Executive Board

The Berks County Farm Women's executive board met on November 7 at the Berks County Agricultural Center with 20 members in attendance. President Lingle thanked all those who helped with the County convention and reminded everyone that the State Convention will be held in Harrisburg on Jan. 9, 1995. Registration is 9-9:30 a.m. and the banquet is at 5:30 p.m. at the Penn Harris Hotel.

The cost is $18. Spring Rally will be held on May 23 at Dickinson College, Carlisle. Cost is $12 and reservations must be in by May 9. The past presidents of Berks County will be getting together for an "Old Fashion Christmas" show at Lantern Lodge, Myerstown, on November 29 or 30. There will be a meal following the show. Cost is $22. Past presidents are to contact Dottie Stricker.

Lancaster Society 8

Society of Farm women No. 8 met on November 8 at the Donegal Presbyterian Church in Mount Joy. Evelyn Dannemann gave devotions. Hostesses were Nellie Blake, Alice Walter, and Evelyn Dannemann. Guest speaker was Don Betty of Lancaster who gave a talk and showed slides on walking the longest suspension bridges both in the United States and other countries. This has been his hobby since 1971. The December 14 meeting will be at the home of Venetta Wallander in Maytown. Members are to bring a dozen cookies for a cookie exchange.

Christkindmarkt At Hershey Museum

These painted beeswax ornaments by Ginny Good of Adamstown will be available at the Christkindmarkt held at the the Hershey Museum.

HERSHEY (Dauphin Co.) — In days long past, German children anxiously awaited the beginning of advent which signalled the beginning of the Christkindmarkt or Christ Child's Market. Children believed the market was the place where the Christ Child bought his wares. Booths and wooden stalls set up in the marketplaces provided all the needs of Christmas. Highlight of the celebration was a visit from Belsnickle, forerunner of the more friendly Santa Claus. This 600-year-old custom continues in many German cities today. Experience this festive German tradition December 2, 3, and 4 when the Hershey Museum holds its first annual Christkindmarkt.

Exclusively selected artisans and craftspeople will be featured at indoor booths on Friday and outdoor booths the entire weekend. Paintings, moravian stars, wooden and fabric folk art, redware and stoneware pottery, weavings, stained glass, collectible Santas, baskets, dolls, bears, dried arrangements, fresh greenery and much more will be offered by exhibitors. A special shopping extravaganza at the Museum gift shop will provide unique gifts for that special someone.

No celebration is complete without music. Featured during the weekend are Frankie DiNunzio's German Band, singing and dancing by the Liederkrantz Club of Lancaster, and a special concert performance by the Lititz Moravian Trombone Choir.

Mouthwatering traditional German foods will be available the entire weekend. Indoor activities are included in the $4 adult, $1.75 child museum fee.
