It's not rocket science, but a lot of advanced technology went into the development of Strategy[®] horse feed, the breakthrough in pelleted feeds.

Designed specifically for the professional horse operation, Strategy's patented manufacturing techniques produce the most sophisticated formulation in the industry. Strategy meets all your needs, from growing, to maintenance, to efficient breeding, to winning performances.

Studies show that a high-fat feed delivers controlled energy with a pronounced calming effect and an improved attitude. Strategy gives horses stamina, improved performance and breeding efficiency, great haircoat and body condition. It also promotes development of strong bones, tendons and muscles in growing horses.

Strategy increases digestibility, allowing you to feed less and provide optimal nutrition.
