

Like Father, Like Son

The picture on the left appeared in this paper in 1969 when Glen Rohrer, who was then 15 years old, shot an 8-point buck in Tioga County. This year, 25 years later, Glen's son Geoff, who is 15 years old, shot a 9-point buck in Tioga County. "All I can say is that his dad taught him well," said Geoff's mother Joyce. "Hunting's definitely in the blood. Glen's father Wilmer is 75 years old and continues to hunt." The Rohrer family milk 200 cows and farm about 360 acres at Blue Rock Road, Lancaster.

Sheppard Begins Second Term As National WIFE President

JETMORE, Ks. — Women Involved In Farm Economics (WIFE) held their 18th annual convention in Montgomery, Alabama, November 9-12. Mary Ann Sheppard, Shorter, Alabama was elected for a second term as president of the national organization.

Sheppard said, "Although there are fewer farmers, those remaining continue to provide a plentiful supply of safe, affordable food for the United States and the world. WIFE supports the continuation of the 1990 Farm Bill with minor changes. We support increasing the loan and target prices to reflect the cost of production plus a profit."

Other 1995 national officers elected are first vice president, Jenifer Felzien, CO; second vice president, Sheila Massey, NM; recording secretary, Marlene Kouba, ND, and treasurer, Nancy Spiegel, KS. Area directors include: Phyllis Howatt, ND; Luella Stevens, NE and Chris Peel, AL.
