

Beef Club Holds Buyers Award Banquet

CHAMBERSBURG (Franklin Co.) — The Franklin County 4-H Baby Beef Club held its Buyers Award Banquet in November at Kauffman Community Center.

The highlight of the evening was to recognize the buyers who purchased steers at the sale. It was also attended by 4-H members, parents, and guests.

Bill Reagan, county agent, introduced the buyers and shared appreciation for their support. Duane Hawbaker, club leader, and Steve Walk, project leader, passed out awards that the members earned at the roundup. Two brothers received the grand champion and reserve champion banner and plaque. The are Jordon Conner who received the grand champion award and Justin Conner who received the reserve champion award, they are the sons of Phoebe and Jeff Conner of Loudon Road, St. Thomas. Justin Conner also received the champion fitter award and Crystal Meyers received the champion shower award. Best project book was awarded to Justin Conner. The daily weight gain award went to Jimmy Clapsaddle.

Jay Meyers, from Meyers Implement Company, spoke to the audience about his life as a high school graduate up until his present day as a businessman. He talked about his relationship with his customers and told us that the key to being prosperous in business is to keep your customer happy, more than trying to make that extra dollar.
