Pork Expo Feb. 15

UNIVERSITY PARK, (Centre Co.) — The seventeenth annual Keystone Pork Expo will be held February 15 at the Lebanon Valley Expo Center at the Lebanon Fairgrounds on Cornwall and Rocherty Roads in Lebanon, Pa. This year's meeting will feature a trade show with 48 exhibits and educational seminars for producers. The Congress will once again sponsor a "Pork Bowl" contest and public speaking competition for competing FFA and 4-H members.

Dr. Kirk Clark, nationally recognized for his work with medicated early wean programs at Purdue University, will speak on the "Benefits of Multiple Site Production." Gary Maas, president of Agri Careers in Massena, Iowa, will provide tips on "Keeping Top Notch Employees." Tom Congelton, marketing manager for the Central Kentucky Hog Marketing Association in Springfield, will provide his perspective on "Establishing a Marketing Network."

Lou Moore, Penn State professor of Agricultural Economics and continuing Pork Expo favorite, will be on hand to deliver his hog market outlook.

Dennis Zimmerman, a producer and member of the Nutrient Management Advisory Board, will discuss the Nutrient Management Law and how it will affect individual operations.

Following the educational seminars, the fourth annual Legislative Activity Fund Auction will be held. There will be no banquet this year following the Expo, but one is tentatively planned for later this year.

Contact your county extension office for a copy of the Pork Congress program.

DO YOU HAVE A DRAFT PROBLEM?

Consider using a rigid type 316 stainless steel liner for your existing chimney. We use type 316 instead of type 304 for more acid resistance. We stock tees, ells and liners in 2 ft. and 4 ft. lengths.
