ADC Reorganizes, Announces Two District Meetings

SOUTHAMPTON (Bucks Co.) — The board of directors of Atlantic Dairy Cooperative recenttly announced the results of earlier district elections for members of the board of directors, and also board reorganizational elections.

In reorganization election results. Robert McSparran, of Peach Bottom, who has served for 27 years on the board, was elected board president for a 15th term. He and his wife. Charlotte, own and operate a 300-acre farm and milk a mixed herd of Holstein and Guernsey cattle. They are in partnership with a son, John.

Ivo Otto Jr., of Carlisle, of District 16, was re-elected vice president. He is a 34-year member of the cooperative and has also served on its board for 27 years. He and his family operate a 300-acre farm, milking 100 Holsteins.

Roy Hetrick, of Bernville, was re-elected as the board's second vice president. A director for 20 years, he and his family milk 375 Holsteins on a 870-acre Berks County farm. They also rent an additional 450 acres.

Other board members re-elected to executive posts include Robert Dever, of Philadelphia, as secretary and chief executive officer; Evan Fineman, of Newtown, as treasurer and chief financial officer: and James Barnett, of Strasburg, as member relations manager and assistant secretary.

Others, who were re-elected to the board during fall district meetings include Robert Winner, of Moorestown, N.J., District 8; Allen Wehr, Mifflinburg, District 14; Kenneth Schoenberg, Shippensburg, District 15; and Thomas Wakefield, Bedford, District 21.

Newly elected to the board this fall were Harold Moyer, of Wyalusing, District 22, who replaces retired H. Carlyle Russell, of Rome.

Moyer and his wife Charlene

SERVICES

Lancaster, PA 17603 (800) HERNIA 8

MOST INSURANCE ACCEPTED

days.

have two children, Trevor, 17, and Rachel, 5, milk 134 Holsteins and farm 1,011 acres, owning 511 acres. They also raise 10 steers and grow forages and corn.

A 1974 Penn State graduate with a bachelor's degree in animal industry, Moyer has served as president and vice president of the Bradford-Sullivan Farm Bureau and he has been active in the state Farm Bureau, serving on its Dairy and Policy Development committees.

A 4-H leader and member of the county 4-H advisory board, Moyer is also chairman of the board of trustees of the North Rome Wesleyan Church.

Named the state's outstanding Holstein boy in 1972, he also graduated from the Pa. Rural Leadership Program in 1991.

District Meetings

In other news, ADC's District 12 meeting is set to be held 11:45 a.m., Jan. 19, at the Hoffman Building, in the Solanco Fair grounds in Quarryville.

During this meeting, officers, delegates and alternative delegates are to be elected for the coming

YCAL.

Members to receive recognition include John Glick, of Kinzer, with 25 years membership, and Herbert and Teresa Graybill, of New Providence, for 50 years membership.

Quality premium awards are to be presented to Curtis and Gary Akers, of Quarryville; Elmer and Sylvia Lantz Jr., Paradise; and J. Carl and Doris Zander, of Quarryville.

Also. District 3 is scheduled to hold its annual banquet meeting on Jan. 24, 11:45 a.m., in the Hoffman Building.

At that meeting, John Fisher, of Quarryville, is to receive a plaque commemorating 25-years of membership. Marlin Brubaker and Gordon Herr, both of the Quarryville area; and Abner L. and Sarah Stoltzfus, of Peach Bottom, are to receive quality premiums awards.

Quality premium awards are presented to those whose herd somatic cell counts have qualified for premium bonus payments for 12 months straight.

Dever is to be the guest speaker at both meetings and is expected to report on the cooperative and dairy industry issues.

Retailers Cash In On Apple Display Contest

HARRISBURG, (Dauphin Co.) - Pennsylvania's apple growers presented cash awards to 14 grocery produce managers as the winners of the Pennsylvania Apple Marketing Program's retail display contest held during October in celebration of National Apple Month.

The 14 winning stores were selected from more than 100 entries submitted by retailers in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, and West Virginia. A total of $2,600 in prizes was presented to the produce managers who built the most creative in-store displays featuring Pennsylvania's Eastern Select apples and point-of-purchase materials.

Entries were divided into eastern and western regions. The eastern winners included:

1st Place $500

Keith Fetterhoff, Foodland, Lebanon, PA

2nd Place $200

Kevin Souders, Pittman IGA, Supermarket, Hancock, MD Andrew Pete, Giant Foods #21, Lebanon, PA

3rd Place $100

J. Robert Zimmerman, Willow

Valley Market #9130, Lancaster, PA

Tom Dombrowski, Stauffer's of Kissel Hill, Rowerstown, PA

Mike Kunkel, Karns #3, Mechanicsburg, PA

Karen Sherwood, Peck's Markets, Callicoon, NY.

Western regional winners included:

1st Place $500

Fran Poniatowski, Harborcreek Giant Eagle, Erie, PA

2nd Place $200

Eric Stewart, Keyser IGA Foodliner, Keyser, WV

Colleen Biscup, Centre Township, Shop 'n Save, Aliquippa, PA 3rd Place $100

Greg Eckenrode, BiLo Foods, Cresson, PA

Tony Krelitzer, Pines Plaza Foodland, Pittsburgh, PA

Richard McCoy, BiLo Foods, Bedford, PA

Bob Lewandowski, Glenshaw Shop 'n Save, Glenshaw, PA

"It was clear from the quality of this year's entries that the produce managers put a great deal of effort into creating their Pennsylvania apple displays, which translates into larger retail profits and increased sales for our shippers," said Brenda Briggs, director for the Pennsylvania Apple Marketing Board. "We were especially pleased to see so many retailers from New York, Maryland, and West Virginia promoting Pennsylvania's Eastern Select apples."

The Pennsylvania Apple Marketing Board is the commonwealth's oldest grower-funded agricultural marketing program. Established in 1968 by the state's apple growers and the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, the program provides consumer education, merchandising, public relations, and market information services.

Farm Management Workshop Set

DAUPHIN (Dauphin Co.) ---Are you interested in improving your farm and business management skills? Do you have any questions or concerns regarding subjects such as optimizing your farm resources, farm business plans, budgeting to fundamental business management plans?

If you do, then plan to attend a workshop sponsored by the Dauphin County Cooperative Extension Office and the Upper Dauphin Young Farmers on Monday evening, Jan. 23, at 7 p.m. at the Vo Ag Science Classroom in the Upper Dauphin High School in Elizabethville.

Allan Shoener, from Schuylkill County, will present a discussion farm management for all interested individuals. In fact it would be beneficial for both husband and wife or father and children to attend together.

If there is interest, plans will be made to conduct a series of workshops for interested farmers and their families. These programs could provide additional opportunities to discuss farm management issues in a more detailed manner.

There is no registration fee for this workshop. However it will be very beneficial for advanced notice of attendance so that informational packets can be prepared. Please contact the Dauphin County Cooperative Extension office at (717) 921-8803 to preregister or if you have any questions regarding this program.

This 1995 Limited Edition Tractor is available for $35.00 which includes shipping and handling. A limited quantity of the 2nd edition-1993 tractors remain for sale at a cost of $45.00. Third edition-1994 are available at $35.00. The 1992 First Edition of the series is sold out! Each tractor comes packaged in it's own special collectors box and includes a certificate of authenticity. Only orders including payment; checks, Master Card or Visa, will be accepted. Make check payable to: The Pennsylvania FFA Foundation.

