

Lancaster Society 26

Farm Women #20 met on Thursday, January 4, at the home of Nancy Axe with Vivian Trout as co-hostess. Following the refreshments Nancy read from the 16th chapter of Proverbs and the Lord's Prayer was prayed in unison. All repeated the Pledge to the Flag before the business meeting conducted by the president, Nancy

Axe. The answer to the Roll-Call was "what you got for Christmas from your secret pal."

Freda Wimer, chairperson of the Sewing Committee set the date for pinning bed pads to be sewed at the February meeting. The Sunshine committee reported 5 cards sent since the last meeting.

For the program Dr. Joyce Vafeas spoke on the different kinds of colds and what medicines might help each one, and she explained the contents of each.

The meeting closed by singing "Brighten the Corner" to meet in February with Valeria and Jane Ferguson at the Union Presbyterian Church. It will be an all-day sewing meeting and each one is to bring a covered dish. Also wear something red or pay a fine of .25.

Berks Society 3

Group #3 of the Berks County Society of Farm Women held its Christmas banquet at the Boyertown Eatery, Bechtelsville. Twenty-two members and guests attended. Secret pal gifts were exchanged with names being revealed and new ones chosen. The program committee distributed new booklets for 1995.

Four members of Group #3 attended the State Farm Women Convention in Harrisburg on January 9.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mary Hill, Fourth Street, Boyertown. The Society of Farm Women By-laws and Constitution will be reviewed.

Berks Society 4

The January meeting of Berks County Society of Farm Women Group 4 was held in the Bechtelsville home of Charlotte Mauger with seven members and guest Gloria Shaner present.

vention were on display.

The by-laws were read and the new proposals were discussed.

The next meeting on February 7 will be a Valentine party and gift exchange at the home of Mary Fizz, Powdermill Hollow Road, Boyertown.

ingenuity to get it up and running. "We plan to have flea markets in nice weather to attract passers-by to stop and have a look," Judy explains.

"Part of our own merchandise includes collectibles we find at yard sales, auctions, or other flea markets."

Their main calling card, however, will remain the goat's milk soap which is sold separately at $1 per cake or packaged with other assorted items to make attractive gifts.

Judy and Lee take turns running the shop when they aren't working at their "real jobs". Lee is a carpenter and Judy, a registered nurse.

They also have a menagerie of other animals including a llama, chickens, guineas, geese, rabbits, two horses, an assortment of cats, a Border collie, and several turkeys.

The kids line up for some affection from Judy.
