HORTICULTURE AGENT COOPERATIVE EXTENSION PENN STATE

Penn State Cooperative Extension is seeking applicants for a horticulture agent to be responsible for planning, implementing, and evaluating innovative educational programs in the broad areas of commercial vegetable and fruit production and marketing. In addition, this individual will be responsible for recruiting, educating and supervising the county's Master Gardener program. Provide educational support for ornamental horticulture, greenhouse production, nursery and landscape management, urban forestry, bee keeping and small fruit. This individual represents Penn State and the College of Agricultural Sciences in interpreting, applying and disseminating the latest technologies and research findings in the previously mentioned program area.

Candidate must have a BS degree in horticulture, plant science or related field. A Master's degree is preferred. A minimum of three years relevant work experience is required. Candidate should possess teaching, evaluating and program development skills and demonstrate positive human relations and effective communication skills.

The Lancaster County Cooperative Extension is a unit of Penn State and as such offers a competitive salary and a liberal benefits package. The closing date for accepting resumes and applications is February 20, 1995, or until a suitable candidate has been selected.

Applications and a detailed position announcement are available by writing or calling HUMAN RESOURCE SERVICES (814-863-3452), Box CLH2, 307 AGRICULTURAL ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, PENN STATE UNIVERSITY, UNIVERSITY PARK, PA 16802
