HUNTSDALE (Cumberland Co.) — A former Cumberland County commissioner, five people who have proven they are talented with the soil and a county extension agent received awards during the 78th annual meeting of the Cumberland County Cooperative Extension Association. Former county Commissioner Rosemarie C. Peiffer, who has been a long-time supporter of the extension and of local agricultural programs in general, received the prestigious AA Raudabaugh Memorial Award during the meeting at the Penn Township Fire Hall.

Peiffer, who has served for quite a while on the extension's board of directors, received the Raudabaugh award from county Extension Director Duane G. Duncan. The honor came as Peiffer ended a one-year term as the 1994 president of the extension board.

Five other people were recognized as Master Gardeners. Those with the green thumbs are Michelle Poe, Sara Shoemaker, Vicki Lykke, Carol Fry and Bill Shearer.

The new Master Gardeners join 36 other people in the county who have earned that title by demonstrating their skill with plants.

A Service Award was presented

Waiting To Control Quackgrass Can Cost You Plenty.

Waiting to use a rescue treatment like Accent* can cost you up to twice as much as using Roundup* herbicide to stop quackgrass before your corn is up. But that's not all you'll pay...

WAITING CAN COST YOU 14 BU/A IN YIELD

Quackgrass is an aggressive competitor for soil moisture and plant nutrients. And if you wait until your corn is up to control quackgrass, you've already lost yield. University tests have shown that waiting to control quackgrass can cost you up to 14 bushels per acre. And then there's the matter of reinfestation...

QUACK CAN COME BACK WITH A VENGEANCE

You know how tough quackgrass can be. Unfortunately, post treatments like Accent don't. They often just knock quack back instead of controlling the entire plant, rhizomes and all, like Roundup. The result? Quackgrass comes back and you're back to square one.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL IT'S TOO LATE

Using Accent after the damage is done can be costly. So don't hesitate. Use Roundup to stop quackgrass before it robs you of yield and profit. See your dealer for the early, economical quackgrass control of Roundup.
