Grower Meeting To Examine IPM

LEESPORT (Berks Co.) — Orchard growers who want to learn more about integrated pest management (IPM) are invited to attend the Southeast Pennsylvania Workshop for Commercial Growers on March 15 at the Berks County Ag Center.

"The Nuts and Bolts of IPM" has been designed as an all-day, intensive experience to provide classroom instruction, hands-on exercises, and demonstrations for participants.

"Growers will be able to sample and monitor insect pests in the orchard and know more about the latest tactics in pest control," said Mena Hautau, extension agent, Berks County Cooperative Extension.

"The Nuts and Bolts of IPM" will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Berks County Ag Center, Leesport. The cost for the workshop is $30 and includes the noon meal, refreshments, and an IPM kit. The registration deadline is March 8. Participation is limited to 50 participants.

For more information, contact Berks County Cooperative Extension, P.O. Box 520, Leesport, PA 19533, (610) 378-1327.

"Atlantic Dairy Cooperative's youth programs provided us with a beneficial learning experience. We learned more about co-ops, developed our leadership skills and made new friends."

—George Inhof and sister, Theresa Spring City, PA

ADC Is the Place To Be

Member education and youth programs — the outstanding benefits that George and Theresa Inhof refer to — are among the strengths of the premier dairy cooperative in the region.

Atlantic Dairy Cooperative has a 78-year history of excellent service to its members. Financially strong, ADC guarantees a market for all member milk and excels in maximizing returns. ADC is a leader in providing equity payments, quality bonuses and over-order premiums to members.

Nearly 4,000 dairy farmers agree that "ADC is the Place to Be." For free information on how you can secure the future of your dairy farm operation, write or call:
