

Eastern Awards 15 Scholarships

SYRACUSE, N.Y.—Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative, based here, presented scholarships to 15 college and technical school students recently as part of its continuing commitment to serving its members' needs.

The scholarships were offered to students whose families were Eastern members or the employees of Eastern members.

Eastern offered 15 scholarships, one in each of its districts, plus four more in areas with unusually high application rates or quality. Current college students were eligible to apply for the $500 scholarships.

The winners were:

Matthew R. Close, Worcester, N.Y., a sophomore at Hartwick College, who is studying economics and environmental science. He is the son of Rich and Connie Mravija.

Sheri Marie Degon, Malone, N.Y., a junior at Cornell University majoring in Natural Resources. She also works as a lab assistant in the dairy nutrition lab. She is the daughter of Donald and Angela Degon.

Patricia Elliott, Towanda, a junior at Mansfield University, who is majoring in special education. She also works as a volunteer with disabled children. She is the daughter of Thomas and Diane Elliott.

David Edward Gilbert, Rushford, N.Y., a senior at Bob Jones University studying pre-law. He is the son of Edward and Jane Gilbert.

Steven S. Haney, Franklin, N.Y., currently enrolled in the dairy production and management program at S.U.N.Y. Cobleskill. He is the son of Ben and Laura Haney.

Shippensburg University junior Jason Herr, Lancaster, who is majoring in public administration. He is the son of Donald and Linda Herr.

Lori Houser, Woodward, a second-year graduate student at the University of Delaware. She is enrolled in the masters of physical therapy program. Lori is the daughter of David and Cecelia Houser.

University of Vermont student Kathryn Montagne, St. Albans, Vt., who is studying professional nursing. She is the daughter of J.

Frank and Annette Montagne.

Heather Dayle Paulhamus, Jersey Shore, who is a freshman at Messiah College, also majoring in nursing. Her parents are Stephen and Pamela Paulhamus.
