Holstein Convention

ter Memorial and Nationality Classrooms at the University of Pittsburgh.

Also scheduled is a "Pittsburgh and its Rivers Tour, which is to feature Station Square with more than 60 shops in restored railroad warehouses.

A ride high up to the Duquesne Incline allows a panorama of Pittsburgh, and the tour also includes a riverboat luncheon cruise, according to a news release.

For those wishing to hit golf balls, a convention amateur golf tournament is set to get started at 6:30 a.m. and last until about 3 p.m. It is the annual convention golf outing with a limit of 132 golfers and is set to be held at Fort Cherry Golf Club, with a pre-tee-off buffet breakfast.

From 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. everybody will want to make at least a temporary stop at Point State Park at the junction of the three rivers of Pittsburgh for a convention barbecue with entertainment by the River City Brass Band (4:30 p.m.-6:15 p.m.).

From 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. those interested in buying cattle can submit bids in the convention silent auction.
