

Lebanon Society 20

Lebanon Farm Women No. 20 met on Thursday, June 1, at the home of Doris Worth with Vivian Hess as co-hostess. Following breakfast the hostesses had the devotions. In response to the roll call each responded with the number of children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren they had.

The Sunshine Committee reported in the past two months there were 11 cards sent, two bouquets and two anniversary gifts given. For the charity members voted for the Edna Schreiber Foundation (formerly Easter Seal Society). A donation was given to a fire victim and $10 to the Agricultural Awareness program.

Members had the Safety program by each of the 20 persons present giving a "safety tip." The meeting closed by singing "Brighten the Corner" to meet in July at the home of Anna Mary Groff with Freda Wimer as a co-hostess.

Lancaster Farm Women Society #24 entertained Society #33 on Tuesday, May 30, at the Conestoga Church of the Brethren, Leola. Millie Eisemann, Ephrata, spoke on the theme "You and I and Yesterday." She took everyone on a journey back to their childhood, reminiscing about things such as sunbonnets and aprons, the importance of the kitchen, the Depression and saving, butchering, the peddlers, and so on. Those in attendance enjoyed the nostalgia. Some members shared their own reminders of the "good ole days." The decorations were antiques and many of the refreshments served were fresh from the garden.
