Maryland Holstein Picnic Set

M O N K T O N, Md. — Maryland Holstein enthusiasts are invited to attend the Maryland Holstein Association's second annual picnic set to be held 10 a.m., August 12, at My Ladys Manor Farm, in Monkton.

Home of the Smith families, a catered lunch is to be served about noon and a day of activities is planned.

Booths, displays, and commercial exhibits are to provide up-to-date information.

Tom Moses, from Holstein USA, is to conduct "Grassroots Member Meetings," small discussion groups so that members desires can be better expressed and achieved.

Don Crossen, a Holstein classifier, is to present a classification workshop for all ages.

At 2 p.m., a free calf drawing is to be held for all youth aged 21 years or less, but the winner must be present to receive the prize.

Free T-shirts are to be given to any youth attending.

In addition, the Maryland Junior Holstein Club will hold a meeting and will also be given a foot trimming demonstration on both the table and a box.

There are to be tours of the farm facilities and a demonstration of the farm's manure irrigation system.

For activities, a swim suit for swimming in the Smith's pool, and and comfortable shoes for games and volleyball are suggested.

The Smith families are working hard to make this an extra-special memorable event for you and your family. No need to make reservations.

There is no charge for the event. For more information, call Harold and Colleen Smith at (410) 557-8522; Robert and Mary Smith at (410) 692-6186; or Ross and Jeanette Smith at (410) 692-6561.
