of champions to present awards, along came a weight-tethered helium balloon with the words, "Look Who's 40!"

Applause from the audience followed a birthday announcement by show announcer Harry Bachman.

The Maulfair family has been showing at the fair and has been active in Ayrshire breed events for a number of years.

He also showed the reserve grand champion, a 4-year-old cow, Maulfair Acres Rebel Geri, while wife Pattie Maulfair showed the junior champion, a winter calf, Conebella Corben's Radiance.

Merritt Hernley, of Lebanon, showed her fall calf, West Meadow V.K. Bambi to win open division reserve junior champion honors, as well as junior champion honors for the 4-H show.

The Maulfair family also took home the group class titles and best udder.

In the Guernsey breed, Andrew Ebersole was the lone exhibitor and the judge praised the quality of his animals.

His senior 3-year-old, Stone Mill Frank Linden, was named 4-H and open division senior and grand champion, while his senior 2-year-old Cedar Fringed Chancer was named FFA senior and grand champion.

His junior champion was a winter calf, Orchard Views Perfect Lil
