

Md. Holstein Show Champion Is Canadian-Born

TIMONIUM, Md.—A Canadian-born 4-year-old exhibited by Butch Harrison and Mike Iager was named grand champion Holstein here at the Maryland State Fair.

C. Mapleborough Revelat Kandy won the contest Monday afternoon at the annual fair in Timonium.

Iager, of Maple Lawn Farm in Fulton, and Harrison, of Dun Loan Farm in Burkittsville, bought the cow from Jimmy Burdette of Windy Knoll View Farm in Mercersburg, Pa.

Kandy was sired by Lonsfarm

Revelation. She was reserve grand champion at the Pennsylvania Spring Show and gave the supreme champion of the Maryland show a run for her money.

Steve White, judge of the Holstein show, easily placed Kandy at champion.

Bobby Griggs, lead judge of the supreme contest, called Kandy a great example of her breed with a "beautiful front end, foot and leg."

"She has a snug fore udder and you've gotta like the height and width of her rear udder," Griggs said.

Iager said he and Harrison expected Kandy to do well.
