

Adams County Celebrates Farm City Festival Today

GETTYSBURG (Adams Co.) — Adams County Dairy Princess Julie Zepp and alternate Joy Hess will promote dairy products at the Adams County Farm-City Festival to be held today, September 16, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The festival and open house will be held at Getty Acres Farm owned and operated by Larry Wilkinson Family at 555 Rentzel Road, Gettysburg.

Education and fun events are planned for the entire family. Hay rides will be given to view the dairy herd and crop production. Milk carton boat races, celebrity milk contest, cow chip bingo, pedal tractor pulls, and a pie eating contest are some of the fun activities planned for the day. Adams County food commodities will serve food throughout the day.

Julie and Joy enjoy promoting milk and dairy products through radio ads, newspaper articles, classroom visits, and talks to farming and non-farming organizations.

Julie is the 17-year-old daughter of Alan and Cindy Zepp of New Oxford. She is a senior at Gettysburg High School and is active in soccer, SADD, and a member of the National Honor Society. Her community activities include church youth group, 30 East 4-H Club, Adams County 4-H Senate, and the Adams County 4-H Dairy Club.

Joy is the 17-year-old daughter of John and Bonnie Hess of Gettysburg. She is a senior at New Oxford High and is involved in FFA, dairy judging, and 4-H dairy club.

Here is a favorite recipe from Julie. She said, "It is perfect for a get together with friends and a post football game party. It is easy to make and is filled with nutritious dairy products that provide you with strong bones and teeth."
