Junior Sheep Show Supremes Named At York Fair

JOYCE BUPP

York Co. Correspondent YORK (York Co.) — A Southdown ewe named "Wendy" won the supreme ewe honors at the York Fair's junior sheep breeding show, then paired with a penmate to claim the supreme fair title as well.

Jennifer Flinchbaugh also hauled home the best bred and owned title for her winning ewe, bred on the family's York farm from nationally-winning Southdown bloodlines. In July, Wendy took second place in the national junior show in Indiana for her 14-yearold owner. Matched with Wendy for the supreme fair win was a purchased futurity Southdown, entered in the November national show in Louisville, Ky.

Jay Rishel, exhibiting breeding sheep for only his second year in competition, took supreme ram honors in the junior show. The Hampshire ram is named "Edgar," as in Edgar Allan Poe, the author - in salute to the Stanley and Poe Farm of Indiana where he was

The supreme title was the first for the '4-year-old Seven Valleys junior exhibitor.

Breed champions in the junior sheep breeding show included Dorset, Paul Kitzmiller, Wellsville, champion ram and ewe: Hampshire, champion ewe, Jennifer Flinchbaugh, York; Montadale, champion ewe, Jennifer Flinchbaugh; Southdown, champion ram, Matt Trostle; Suffolk, champion ram, Michael Burrell and champion ewe, Travis Flory; Natural Colored Sheep, champion
