

Commodity Classic Set For Late February

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Corn and soybean growers who are looking for a mid-winter getaway should consider this year's Commodity Classic to be held here on Feb. 25-27, 1996.

Notre Dame football coach Lou Holtz, one of the most successful college football coaches of all time, will serve as keynote speaker for the event. As part of the Tuesday evening of entertainment, Glen Campbell will perform his greatest hits.

Programs on marketing, production technology, environment, biotechnology, a legislative update and more will be presented during the breakout sessions. In addition the Classic will include a trade show with over 117 exhibitors. The Classic is sponsored by the National Corn Growers Association and the American Soybean Association.

For more information on registration for the Classic, contact NCGA at (314) 275-9915.
