

Ten-year-old Amanda Miller leads her Southdown to a third-place win in the junior division at the KILE Leadline.

Wool Makes Fashion Statement At KILE

ner was Amanda Miller of Mertztown. She wore a 100 percent royal blue crepe wool dress. The 10-year-old led a Southdown ewe named Peaches adorned with a matching halter and royal blue wool bow.

Division winners received $150 premiums from Woolrich, Inc., Lebanon Valley National Bank, and the Pennsylvania Sheep and Wool Grower's Association. Additional cash premiums were also offered and gifts were given from breed associations.

Second-place in the junior division went to Emmalynn Little and her Jacob yearling ewe. The ancient breed dates back to biblical times.
