

'Some Countries Don't Have A Word For Volunteerism'

GAIL STROCK

Mifflin Co. Correspondent
GRANVILLE (Mifflin Co.)—"Some countries don't even have a word for volunteerism in their language," said Dr. Harold Ott at a banquet to honor 4-H volunteers.

Regional 4-H director from Penn State, Ott spoke briefly to more than 75 volunteers, 4-H'ers, parents, and guests at the 4-H leaders banquet at the Granville United Methodist Church on Oct. 10.

He complimented Mifflin County for seeing the need for an additional youth development agent and hiring Lori Lauver to fill that position.

The 4-H junior leaders, who planned the banquet, surprised Frank Bonson with the Friends of 4-H Award. The award goes to a non-4-H leader who contributes notably to the program. Bonson
