

Dairylea Elects Executive Committee

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — Clyde Rutherford of Otego, N.Y., was re-elected to his 18th term as president of Dairylea Cooperative Inc. at the Cooperative's annual meeting in mid-October. Rutherford, who has served as Dairylea's president for 17 years, is also the Cooperative's District 9 director, a position he has held for the past 22 years. Rutherford and his wife, Jeanette, operate a 500-acre dairy which produces 1.8 million pounds of milk annually.

Currently, Rutherford is a member of the Executive Committee and chairman of the Dairy Stabilization Committee Task Force of the National Milk Producers Federation. Regionally, he is on the Board of Directors of O-AT-KA Milk Products Cooperative, Inc. and Allied Federated Cooperatives; vice chairman of the Board of Directors of Atlantic Processing, Inc.; and a director and member of the Executive Committee of the Empire Livestock Marketing, Inc.

Four other Dairylea members were re-elected to the Executive Committee.

Warren Beardsley of Penfield, N.Y., was re-elected to serve on Dairylea Cooperative's Executive Committee as first vice president.

Beardsley, the Cooperative's District 3 director, manages a 155-cow Holstein herd with help from three of his sons, Lenny, Larry and Donald. They grow 500 acres of corn, hay and wheat on their Monroe County farm.

Beardsley is a director of O-AT-KA Milk Products Cooperative, Inc. and the National Milk Producers Federation. He is a member of the New York Farm Bureau, Agway Inc. and the Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA), and is vice president of the Health Foundation and the Dairy Council. Beardsley is also a director of the Western New York Bargaining Agency and is a New York State district director for the American Dairy Association and Dairy Council, Inc.

Raymond Diebold of Altoona, Pa., was re-elected to the Executive Committee as second vice president and secretary.

Diebold, who has been a member of the Executive Committee since 1981, is also the Cooperative's District 6 director, a position he has held for the past 16 years.

In addition to his responsibilities as a Dairylea director, Diebold is a director on the Pennsylvania Agricultural Land Preservation Board; a member of the Altoona/Blair County Farm/City Week Committee; and Dairylea's representative on both the Pennsylvania State Council of Farm Organizations and the Pennsylvania Dairy Promotion Commodity Board. He also serves on the Agricultural Advisory Committees to Sen. Robert Jubelier (R-Altoona, Pa.) and Dr. Lamartine Hood, Dean of the College of Agriculture at Penn State University.

Diebold owns and operates a 135-acre farm with his wife, Judy, and their three children, Kenneth, Kevin and Karen. They manage 85 registered Holsteins with an annual herd average of 21,000 pounds.

James Madigan of Towanda, Pa., was re-elected to serve on the Dairylea Executive Committee as treasurer.

Madigan, Dairylea's District 5 director, operates a 450-acre Bradford County farm in partnership with his mother, Ruth Norton. He milks 100 Holsteins and Brown Swiss with his wife, Terri, and sons, Jason and Byron.

Madigan is active in his community. He is a member of the Troy Area School District, and previously served as its president. Madigan is also president of the Sul-Bra Co-op Council, the local council of the Pennsylvania Council of Cooperatives, and is a member of Agway, Farm Credit, the Bradford-Sullivan County Farm Bureau Dairy Committee, and the Claverack Rural Electric Co-op. In addition, Madigan recently became a director of the National Milk Producers Federation.

Previously, Madigan served on the advisory council for the Pennsylvania Association of Farmer Cooperatives Director School, the Dairy Promotion Committee of Bradford County, and as a district committee member of the Northeast Dairy Farm Beautification Program.

Raymond Johnson of Schaghticoke, N.Y., was re-elected to the Executive Committee as assistant treasurer. Johnson, who is also the Cooperative's District 12 director, has been a director of Dairylea since 1982.

Johnson farms in partnership with his son Ed on 450-acre Duelwood Farm, which is home to 100 milking Holsteins. The family farm, where Johnson and his wife, Estella, reside, dates back to 1928. The Johnsons have always marketed their milk through Dairylea.

Additionally, Johnson has served as president of the American Dairy Association and Dairy Council, Inc. for 11 years. Currently, he serves as a director of Dairy Management Inc., and is the second vice president of the United Dairy Industry Association (UDIA). Johnson is also a member of the UDIA Personnel and Finance Committees and past chairman of the Research Committee of the National Dairy Board. A 1954 graduate of Cornell University, Johnson was named an outstanding alumnus by the Cornell College of Agriculture and Life Sciences in 1992.

The Suzuki QuadSport 80 may be used only by those aged 12 and older. Adults must always supervise riders under the age of 18. All other Suzuki ATVs may be used only by those aged 16 and older. Suzuki highly recommends that all ATV riders take a training course. We'll even pay for it. For safety and training course information, see your dealer or call the SVIA at 1-800-852-5344. ATVs can be hazardous to operate. For your safety, always wear a helmet, eye protection and protective clothing. Never ride on paved surfaces or public roads. Never carry passengers or engage in stunt riding. Riding and alcohol or other drugs don't mix. Avoid excessive speeds. Be extra careful on difficult terrain. Along with concerned conservationists everywhere, Suzuki urges you to "TREAD LIGHTLY" on public and private land. Preserve your future riding opportunities by showing respect for the environment, local laws and the rights of others when you ride.
