

December Pasture Walk Set

FREDERICK, Md. — The last pasture walk of 1995 for Frederick County, Maryland will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 20, from 10 a.m. until noon. Peter and Marcie Vorac, Castle Hill Farm will be hosting the event.

The Voracs currently have about 20 Polled Hereford cows and 40 Suffolk sheep. Permanent pastures consist of fescue, orchardgrass, bluegrass, and clovers. Alfalfa, orchardgrass and timothy hay fields are also brought into the pasture system as required during dry weather and winter months.

Stockpiled forages, watering systems, and fencing will be discussed.

The purpose of the pasture walk is to allow livestock producers a chance to learn more about the use of rotational grazing as a way to increase agricultural profitability. Most of the time will be spent walking through the pastures discussing plant growth, fencing, watering systems, and animal performance.

Castle Hill Farm is located at 5814 Broad Run Road, Jefferson, Md. From Jefferson, take Broad Run Rd. (Rt. 383) north 2.3 miles to crossroad intersection. Turn right at intersection to continue on Broad Run Rd. 1.3 miles to the lane on the left. From Middletown, head south on Burkittsville Rd. (Rt. 17) approximately 3.4 miles. Turn left onto Broad Rd. (Rt. 383). Go one mile. Turn left onto Broad Run Rd. Go 4/10 mile to the lane on the right.
