

Farmers' Markets On Turnpike

HARRISBURG (Dauphin Co.)—Agriculture Secretary Charles C. Brosius recently announced that farmers interested in operating stands at two new farmers' markets on the Pennsylvania Turnpike during the 1996 growing season should contact the department.

Brosius noted that the farmers' markets would be located at the New Stanton (Westmoreland County) and the Valley Forge (Chester County) service plazas.

"The pilot program establishing turnpike farmers markets at the Sideling Hill and Allentown Service Plazas was extremely successful," Brosius said. "The two new locations will give more local farmers an opportunity to sell their products, and travelers will have additional opportunities to enjoy the great taste of Pennsylvania products."

Vendors are to be producer-only vendors who grow not less than 50 percent of their farm products in Pennsylvania.

Farmers interested in setting up market stands at the New Stanton or Valley Forge service plazas should contact Sharon Fulginiti, Bureau of Market Development, 2301 North Cameron Street, Harrisburg, PA 17110-9408. The telephone number is (717) 787-5086.
