We have many walkers along our dead-end road as there is a building development near us. At one time people were so busy earning a living that they did not have time for a leisurely walk everyday.

I've always enjoyed walking and in my lifetime I've walked many places. Some have been the green, lush pastures of Ireland, the beaches of Hawaii, the tundra in Alaska, and around the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France.

goat wagon. Both should be older models that are in good shape and priced reasonably.

QUESTION — Sandra Laughman, Hardin, Mo., wrote that she read about a woman who creates pickled fabrics. Sandra would like information on the procedure and ingredients to use.

QUESTION — Lisa Sparr, Upper Falls, Md., would like to know how to get the grates on a gas grill clean.

However, one walk that will forever stick in my mind is a walk that I took when I was only 14 years old. You see, I had forgotten to pick up a house key off a table in one farmhouse to open a door in another farmhouse. And so my father sent me down a pitch black one-mile road to get that key. It was a lonely, scary trip on a very dark night. When I got home, I found that the family had opened an outside cellar door and had gotten in the house without the key.

In the spring I and my six sisters looked forward to a walk down our cinder road to a meadow filled with spring flowers. Our path took us along a steep bank beside the Conestoga River. It's a wonder that we never fell in as we climbed over many fallen trees. Then in the summer I would partially retrace our steps when I gathered wild, black raspberries to make jelly. The problem there was that we were not allowed to use the jelly and when my parents moved 25 years later the corner cupboard was full of unused jams and jellies.

During the Depression, some plumbers walked three miles every morning and evening carrying their tools to install a bathroom in our home. You see, they were only too glad for a job.

Now our neighbors walk for exercise for themselves and also for their dogs.

ANSWER — Mrs. Harold Kuehler, Coatesville, wanted to know how to keep the dog's water pail from freezing when they go away overnight. Thanks to I.A. Kirk Sr., Silver Springs, Md., who writes that bird feeding stores carry an electric heater to put into bird baths. Kirk has tried the heater and it works great.

ANSWER — Jean Nestler, Halifax, wanted to know how to make scented pine cones to burn safely in the fireplace. Thanks to Sarah Clark, Breezewood, who sent these directions previously printed in our paper.

Colorful Burning Pinecones

1½ gallons hot water
3 plastic or ceramic containers, one for each color
½ pound copper sulfate (for green flame)
½ pound boric acid (for crimson flame)
½ pound calcium chloride (for yellow or yellow-orange flame)

Pinecones

Pour ½ gallon hot water into each container. Add one chemical to each container of hot water.
Stir until chemicals are dissolved.
Add pinecones and soak overnight.
Allow pinecones to dry thoroughly in warm dry air for two days.

Add cones to fire two or three at a time. The colorful flames will last only a short time.

Warning: Keep this solution out of the reach of small children and pets. The chemicals may be toxic.
