

This column is for readers who have questions but don't know whom to ask for answers.

"You Ask—You Answer" is for non-cooking questions. When a reader sends in a question, it will be printed in the paper. Readers who know the answer are asked to respond by mailing the answer, which will then be printed in the paper.

Questions and Answers to this column should be addressed to You Ask—You Answer, Lancaster Farming, P.O. Box 609, Ephrata, PA 17522. Attention: Lou Ann Good.

There's no need to send a SASE. If we receive an answer to your question, we will publish it as soon as possible. Please include your phone number because we sometimes need to contact the person to clarify details.

QUESTION — John Kreider, New Holland, writes that he collects milk bottles from dairies in Pennsylvania. He has one from Sunnyside Farm, Flicksville. QUESTION — Glenda Strouse, Northumberland, would like to know the title and author of an excerpt from the following poem. The complete poem appeared in the 12/9 issue, but we need to condense for space. It's her grandmother's favorite poem and she could recite every word until a stroke took her voice. She is 89 and in a nursing home, but Glenda reads this poem to her every Christmas. Glenda said that there may be parts missing or wrong since she wrote it from memory.

*The yule log blazed in the ancient hold.
The begger shrank from the biting cold.
The baron's only daughter, the little Lady Grace was better dressed than any guest and fairer in the face.
Yet never a thought of pride had she as she gaily danced round the Christmas tree. . . .*

ANSWER — In answer to Kathryn Heberling, Falls Creek, who had some questions about teaberry flavoring, Mary Lou Weisser, Lansdale, sent information she has compiled over the years. Mary Lou writes that she is addicted to the teaberry flavor and through the years has gathered the following information: Teaberry is a methyl-salicylate wintergreen flavoring. It is available in an extract made by John Wagner and Sons, Jacksonville Rd., Ivyland, PA 18974 or call (215) 674-5000. This is pure wintergreen oil and 90 percent alcohol. It is not sweet.

Another, stronger extract can be purchased from Byron H. Smith Co., Bangor, Maine 04401. This is a pure extract of checkerberry, which is oil of sweet birch, methyl-salicylate and 67 percent alcohol.

She also has a syrup, which is sweet of checkerberry from a place in Conn. Years ago, it was made by Doudens on the Green, 87 Whitefield St., Guilford, Conn. Phone (no area code given) 453-2133 R. Dudley, Reg. Pharm.

Years ago, Mary Lou was able to get ice cream teaberry flavor from the Weiss Markets chain Carnival brand.

She also purchases chocolate covered patties from a candy place in New Hampshire. Kellerhaus U.S. Rt. 3 P.O. Box 5337, Weirs Beach, N.H. 03247. She orders it by phone and uses a charge card. (603) 366-4466.

ANSWER — A subscriber wanted to know where to locate a 1965, 1966, or 1967 gas tank (new, old stock) for a 1965 Cadillac. Thanks to Edwin Lucke, who writes that he has one. Call him at (717) 235-8166 after 5:30 p.m. any day except Monday or Tuesday. Or, write to R.R.2, Box 2883, Glenville, PA 17329.

Showing Is Family Affair

for the Farm Show sale, the animals must place in the top 55 percent of the class.

As with the other competitors, winning the top trophies are not everything. It's fun to meet other exhibitors from across the state and compare notes. Some friendships result in lasting relationships. The Donoughs ought to know. Their parents met in Farm Show competition as teen-agers and their friendship blossomed into a lifelong commitment of marriage.

The Donoughs are grateful for the support of businesses that purchase the sale animals.

"It's a great opportunity for kids to earn some money for college," Ed said.

Travis has his sights set on attending Penn State to study animal science or ag engineering.

In addition to 4-H, both boys are Boy Scouts. Ryan is fascinated with computer art class. But it's their 4-H projects that take the most time and commitment.

"It's lots of fun. We can learn a lot about managing time and money. And, it teaches us responsibility," Ryan said.

His brother agreed. "But you can tell the kids whose parents help them, because kids can't do everything on their own," Travis said.
