

Maine-New England Beef Expo April 26-28

FRYEBURG, Maine — The Maine Beef Producers Association will present the 1996 Maine - New England Beef Expo on April 26-28 here on the Fairgrounds.

The sixth annual event is well on its way to becoming the largest and finest expo to date.

Several visitors from the 1995 Maine - New England Beef Expo requested more trade show exhibits. The trade show is well on its way to offering something for everyone this year. Requests for space are still coming in.

One of last year's exhibitors commented, "When I left the Expo last year, I wasn't sure how well I was going to do, but I sold equipment all year long because of my booth at the Expo. As a matter of fact, last week I delivered another piece of equipment to Massachusetts from a contact I made at the Expo."

The Pure Bred Seed Stock Sale for 1996 has doubled in size over last year. On Saturday evening, immediately following the banquet, scheduled is the New England Simmental Association Sale with six bulls and 24 females.

The Pride of the Pines Sales, featuring Hereford Cattle, is next with entries from as far away as New Jersey. The last group selling on Saturday night will be the Highland Cattle.

National champion blood lines will be offered from throughout the Northeast this year with 16 entries of some of the top Highland Cattle found anywhere in the country.

The Sixth Annual National Belted Galloway Sale will take place on Sunday beginning at 11 a.m. More than 45 Belties from the nation's finest foundation herds will be offered this year.

The New England Angus Association will wrap up the sale with 50 of the finest hand-picked lots available.

The educational program this year will include a hands on clinic for youth leaders and parents on how to successfully manage a club calf.
