

TROUT SPRING FARM

At Trout Spring Farm, Lancaster, John E. Kreider and Dennis and Carol Kauffman and family have joined efforts to receive the 1996 Dairy of Distinction award. They farm 95 acres and milk 45 registered Holsteins that average around 20,000 lbs. of milk. They actually have an additional 60 helpers and calves because they have been blessed with a run of helper calves, including several sets of twins. They have quite a number of VG cows in the herd, and they showed the first place junior two year-old at both the Lancaster and Lebanon dairy shows last year. The herd BAA is 104. Dennis and Carol have three children, Melissa 23, Melanie 21, and Melonica 18. The family works hard to keep the cows comfortable and give them the best feed.

STOLTZFUS FARM

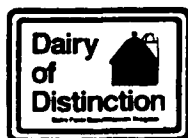

Jonathon or Miriam Stoltzfus, Jr., Ronks, have this Dairy of Distinction farm. Being Amish, they farm with horses.
