To our knowledge, the youngest exhibitor at the Elizabethtown Fair held last week was eight-month-old Benjamin Mowrer. His two New Zealand rabbits were first and second class winners. Shown with him are his mother, Erin Mowrer, right, and grandparents Dwight and Sarah Algoe, leaders of the Mount Joy 4-H Rabbit Club. Said his grandmother, "Our dream is that he will keep competing through his teen-age years."

Jordan, 4, and Devin, 22 months, are dressed for the E-town Fair. The brothers are the children of Beth and Tim Eberly.

Let's Think Country Fair Time

Once when my brothers took me to the county fair, I was very thirsty, so he bought a _ t _ _ _ _ r _ _ m _ _ _ _ k _ for me to drink. He drank one, too.

I remembered to say "Thank you," to my brother.

We walked around. We looked at stuff. We talked to some friends. We laughed at a funny _ l _ _ _ carrying bobbing _ a _ _ o o _ _ on sticks.

When it was time for the g _ _ _ _ d _ _ _ n _ show, my brother took out his _ _ _ l _ t to pay for our _ _ k _ _ . He had a twenty dollar _ i _ _ .

I had five dollars to spend. I asked my brother if he was hungry for _ _ _ c _ _ _ .

"Yeah. That sounds good. If you're buying it, I want the jumbo size," he said.

On the grandstand, we watched the demolition d _ _ _ _ . We cheered for the guy who was driving an ugly green clunker named "Lizard."

Later, we rode the _ _ _ r _ _ _ h _ _ _ . When it was stopped to load or unload riders, the seats would s _ _ _ _ back and forth. Girls would _ c _ _ _ .

Our pickup truck has another passenger on the way home. It was a big _ t _ _ p _ _ _ _ g _ _ . My brother won it at a ball-throwing booth.

A big attraction at the E-town Fair is the Petting Zoo. Here children can crawl around on the table with rabbits.

Children of all ages mingled with goats of all sizes, colors, and breeds at the E-town Fair.
