WARNING, ALL SILO OWNERS

It's important that you know your silo needs maintenance. Your silo will not fall when it's empty. Please check your silo for damage or check your insurance policy.

Think twice before filling with wet corn silage. Remember, this crop was grown with all kinds of rain, no two years are the same. Don't let the feed man tell you to put corn silage in the silo with higher moisture than normal. If you do, it will cost you more twisted stomach, health problems or damage to your silo.
