A BIG SALE TO OUR PORK PRODUCERS

OCTOBER IS NATIONAL PORK PRODUCERS MONTH

We salute the pork producers out of genuine respect for their industry, the challenges and the rewards, and want to express our gratitude to those people who dedicate their lives and energy to providing the world with "the other white meat." There is enough food in the world and that part of the choice is yours. We are grateful for the choice of foods that come from pork.

October is national Pork Producers Month and set a precedent for our dependence to the pork producer, not only for the food on our plates at every meal, but also for the bountiful additional products granted, from perfume ingredients to sports equipment. Thank you, from all of us.
