Ag Extension Book Tells All

AMES, Iowa — Agricultural Extension is a thorough, practical 304-page handbook that explains the purpose, importance, and far-reaching effects of agricultural extension throughout the world. The information presented tells how to establish, communicate, and implement effective agricultural extension programs that address specific needs and long-term goals in any location. The second edition features more than 30 percent revised material from its best-selling first edition.

This new edition is written by two authors with decades of experience teaching undergraduate and postgraduate courses in agricultural extension; conducting extension-related research; and serving as consultants and trainers in field programs in Africa, Asia, and South America.

The editors: Dr. A.W. van den Ban was formerly head of the Department of Extension Education at the Wageningen Agricultural University in the Netherlands and Dr. H.S. Hawkins is senior lecturer in Agricultural Extension at the University of Melbourne, Australia. 304 pp., 6 x 9, illus., paperback, #0-632-04053-X, $25.95.
