

4-H Horse Enthusiasts Come Out Winning

(Continued from Page B19)

Lebanon Horse Bowl Team (1st In State/9th National Con), from left, Diane Watts, Sarah Stieg, Melody Enck, Rebecca Kleinfelter.

Armstrong County 4-H Member, Katie Cornish, with Romandaros Sunny Delight 1st place Miniature Horse In Filly of this Year Class.

In 4-H horse production classes, members breed and raise their own project animal. Lancaster winners included Beth Holton, 1st-Two-Year Old Gelding, Hunter Type Horse.

Julie Dotta, 1st and State Champion in Hunter Hack Ponies, and 8th in Hunter Under Saddle Ponies.

Bradford County 4-H member Samantha latest of Ulster placed first in Pole Bending Horses and ninth in Raised Box Keyhole Horses at the 37th annual State 4-H Horse Show held in Harrisburg.

Venango County 4-H Wendy Schubauer of OH City placed 1st in the Yearling Filly/2 Year Old Filly class-Half Arabian.

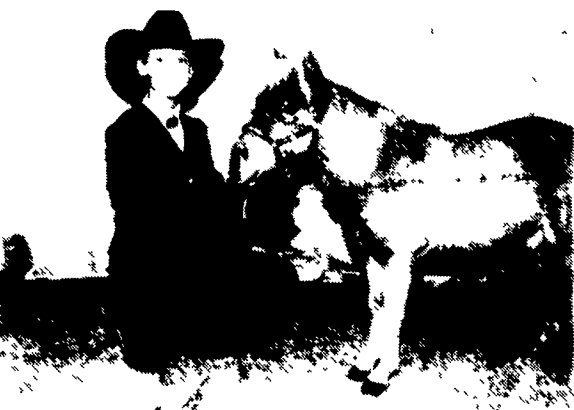

Julla Alexa Thomas, 3rd In 2 year old Hunter Type gelding and 1st In the yearling Hunter Type filly class.

Sandy George, RR 1 Danville, a member of the Montour County 4-H Horse & Pony Club and JDS Shadow pose at the State 4-H Horse Show held in Harrisburg, after winning the Western Pleasure Two Year Old Futurity class.

Heather McGinnis, 1st place Hunter Type Horse Two Year Old Filly, Indiana County, "Kymberlin."

Armstrong County 4-H Member, Amanda Good, with Romandaros Dusty Scotter, 1st place Miniature Horse in Yearling Colt Class.

Venango County 4-H Amber Hawkins of Polk placed 1st with her Yearling Gelding-Hunter Type Pony.

Venango County 4-H Deana Gallagher of Franklin placed 1st in Saddle Seat Pleasure Ponies.

Melissa Melskey, 1st-Saddle Seat Equitation, Sr. Division.

Sheena Davisson of the Eastern Greene Horse & Pony Club of Greene County placed first in Saddleseat Pleasure Horses riding PF Denmark's Memories.

Heather McGinnis, 1st place Quarter Horse Yearling Gelding, Indiana County, "Mr. James Stewart."

(Turn to Page B21)