Maryland FFA

Land Judging Contest
The Queen Ann's FFA Chapter won the first place banner in the land judging contest held recently.

The contest was held in Queen Ann's County, Maryland. The contest is sponsored by the Maryland Association of Soil Conservation Districts as a special project of the Maryland FFA Foundation, Inc. The high scoring individual for the Land Judging Contest was Sherry Riggelman, member of the Clear Spring FFA Chapter. The Clear Spring High School FFA Chapter took the second place banner in the contest.

First place team from Queen Anne's County: Mr. Tribbett, Laurie O'Connell, Duncan Butler, Chris Meredith, and Tommy Leager.

Second place team from Clearspring: Sherry Riggelman, Lindsay Mills, Medi Drury, Tonya Robinson, Brian Stottlemeyer, Paul Kelly, Glen Ruck, and Mr. Flynn.

According to Contest Superintendent Carl E. Robinette, soil scientist with the United States Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service, nine teams were registered with 44 members participating. Contestants were asked to evaluate soils at three sites for their capability and their limiting factors.

The members were then to recommend the best management practices for agricultural and non-agricultural land uses at each site. Jim Brewer and Phil King of the Soil Conservation Service supervised the contest.

The winning teams in the land judging contest from first through third were Frederick High School, Clear Spring High School, and Queen Ann's High School.

The top scoring individuals receiving gold medals were: 1. Sherry Riggelman, Clear Spring FFA, 2. Duncan Butler, Queen Ann's FFA and 3. Craig Meredith, Queen Ann's FFA.
