ANSWER — Rosa Sensenig of Quarryville requested directions to make a wreath using wrapped hard candy. Thanks to Ann Martin, New Holland; B. Light, Lebanon, and others for sending instructions.

Wrapped Candy Wreath

1 wire clothes hanger or wire frame of comparable width (circumference of wreath can vary from 3 to 16 inches, depending on use)

Wire (.025-inch gauge)

Wrapped candy in bulk (an 8-inch wreath require about 1½ pounds)

Box

Blunt scissors

If using hanger, form into wreath shape

Apply two pieces of candy at a time to frame by wrapping wire around the twisted ends of the candy wrappers and then twisting the wire around the frame. Be sure wire is pulled snugly on frame.

Repeat process until wreath is filled.

If using a clothes hanger, your wreath has a built-in hook for hanging. If using a wire circle, fashion a hanger from ribbon or wire.

Affix a bow to the top of the wreath and attach a blunt pair of scissors to one of the bow's streamers, so the recipients can cut the candy off the wreath.

Include a tag that says, "Help yourself."
