chapter committees: citrus sales, banquet, and Easter lilies. He completed projects in agriscience and tissue culture. He received his Greenhand and chapter degrees.

Philip C. Eby

Four-year Hans Herr FFA member Philip C. Eby noted that he enjoys "learning skills such as leadership, which will help me in the future.'

Philip, 18, son of Dennis and Ellen Eby, Gap, has served as Hans Herr sentinel. He has served as chairman of the recreation commitee. In addition, Philip has completed work experience and beef production projects.

Philip has been honored with the state bronze award in agronomy and ag mechanics. He received his Red Rose degree.

Four-year Central Columbia FFA member Julie Edwards said the thing she most enjoys about FFA "is the fact that the members can get together and get great things accomplished and still have fun," she noted. "Everyone is so friendly and everyone gets along with each other, but always keeps the goals in sight."

Julie, who plans to attend college to major in agribusiness, has served as chapter reporter and treasurer. In addition, she has served on the following committees: fair, banquet, citrus, Farm Show, and leadership.

Julie has received several honors. including beef production, fruit and vegetable production, and grain and hay production. She received various awards, including three scholarship honors, two leadership honors, and participated in other contests, including National FFA Band, state creed, state parliamentary procedure, and as a Governor's School alternate. She received her Greenhand degree.

Kelly Evans

Four-year Columbia-Montour AVTS member Kelly Evans enjoys working with the other FFA officers and "conducting a good meeting."

Kelly, 18, daughter of Barbara and Edward C. Evans Sr., Benton, plans to open a flower shop after she is graduated.

Kelly has served as chapter sentinel. She has also served on the BOAC, finance, and citrus committees. She completed Farm Show and fair booth projects and received a landscaping award. She received her Greenhand and chapter degrees.

Edward E. Fairman II

"We only have one Earth. We need to protect it," noted four-year United High School member Edward E. Fairman II.

Edward, 18, son of Ed and Pauline Fairman, Armagh, Indiana County, said he enjoyed the work FFA does to help the environment. Edward, who has served as chapter chaplain, news reporter, and is president, plans to major in theater.

He has served on the Adopt-A-Stream committee and completed projects on stocking streams with fish. He has received his Star Greenhand honor.

Edward G. Fisch Jr.

"Being able to show animals" was one of the things that Edward Fisch indicated he enjoyed about being an FFA member.

The four-year Clearfield FFA member has completed beef and sine production projects. Edward, 18, son of Ed and Deb Fisch, Woodland, has received beef and swine production awards, in addition to the Star Chapter Farmer honor. He plans to become an iron worker and has received his Greenhand and chapter degrees.

John Fisher

"Meetings" and "to meet with friends" comprise the enjoyment that four-year Greenwood FFA member John Fisher has for FFA.

John, 17, son of Leroy and Ada Fisher, Mount Pleasant Mills, plans to pursue carpentry after graduation. He has served on the citrus committee. In addition, he completed work experience and poultry projects. John has earned his Greenhand and area degrees.
